

Game links for kids

Disaster Island

https://www.youtube.com/watch?annotation_id=annotation_1253026047&feature=iv&src_vid=D8erCX8pkqs&v=xPFPgjbLxlg

sound but no visual – blank white page

Crucial Crew (St Johns ambulance, NHS, Police etc)

<http://www.crucial-crew.org/>

mobile game – asks for details

access denied for online games

Teaching resources – PDF documents information – scenario and then flowchart with options and takes you to right and wrong answer.

Disaster Hero (USA)

<http://www.disasterhero.com/>

Resources tab – information and tips For Kids, For Parents, For Teachers – checklist which includes links to government documents

Disaster Resilience Education for Schools (Australian)

<https://schools.aemi.edu.au/>

Tabs to potential disasters include info on each disaster, what is it etc.

then each disaster has a For Teachers tabs which includes which key learning area it covers, objectives, resources required and a lesson plan.

SEPA (Scottish Environmental Protection Agency) for Kids

<http://www.sepakids.com/>

Information on different areas/emergencies i.e. air, flooding, waste etc.

Games – matching cards, videos, flood kit quiz

Stop Disasters game by ISDR (Greater Manchester)

<http://www.agma.gov.uk/greater-manchester-prepared/stop-disasters-game-by-isdr/index.html>

Access denied

What if?

<http://www.whatif-guidance.org/>

jigsaws, colouring in, (younger children IMO)

board game is good – could possibly be used.

Ready (USA)

<http://www.ready.gov/kids>

8 levels of game Disaster Master

Sets a scene, (comic book style) speech bubbles, and asks questions with three options

Gives a score and then a password at the end which is to be used for the next level.