Mr White had attended the meeting to express his concerns regarding the speeding of vehicles through the village, this is particularly bad adjacent to the Royal Arms, especially on Sundays when the area is busy with walkers. Potholes were also a concern. The Dist Cllrs explained that the Police would not engage unless serious RTA's had taken place.

John Jacklin had e:mailed to ask why the precept had been increased by 4%. The clerk and Cllr Brookfeild would look at this.

A resident had asked if white lines could be reinstated from the Royal Arms, unfortunately there are insufficient funds for this to be carried out by the Council.
